

Top 5 Free Study Tools for Students in 2025

Google Calendar

Why Use It: Organize your assignments, deadlines, and study sessions.

Pro Tip: Use color coding to differentiate subjects or tasks.

Learn More: <https://calendar.google.com/>

Quizlet

Why Use It: Create flashcards or use pre-made sets for quick memorization.

Pro Tip: Search for shared sets by other students to save time.

Learn More: <https://quizlet.com/>

Grammarly

Why Use It: Improve your writing with real-time grammar and clarity suggestions.

Pro Tip: Use the browser extension for writing help anywhere online.

Learn More: <https://www.grammarly.com/>

Microsoft OneNote

Why Use It: Organize your notes by creating separate tabs for each subject.

Pro Tip: Use the drawing feature for mind maps and diagrams.

Learn More: <https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/microsoft-365/onenote/digital-note-taking-app>

Forest

Why Use It: Boost focus by planting virtual trees while studying.

Pro Tip: Compete with friends for added motivation!

Learn More: <https://www.forestapp.cc/>